OBITUARY.

Mrs. Annie Marie L. Burnett, dearly beloved wife of E. A. Burnett of this city, daughter of Charles and Hannah Lane, formerly of Philadelphia, departed this life March 2, 1873, aged twenty-two years.

Our darling left sweetly asleep in Jesus. She has led an exemplary Christian life since her conversion, five years ago. She was a faithful and devoted wife and daughter, a tender mother, and true and loving sister. She was always ready to offer help to those in distress and grief, never thinking of self, but always doing something for the comfort and pleasure of those she loved. This lovely sleeper was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, April 9, 1848, was reared by Christian parents, and attained the years of womanhood amidst the happy enjoyments of a bright and peaceful life. She was noted among a large circle of friends for her amiability and sweetness of character. At seventeen years of age she, with her family, moved to Cairo, and on Christmas, seven years ago, was united in marriage to Mr. E. A. Burnett, by Mr. Roberts of the Presbyterian church. Her death was a great termination to such a life as hers. A short time before her death she called on her father to pray, then thanked him sweetly, and told him to give her courage, and helped her move, and after joining her family in singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee" her spirit was wafted home to her Saviour. "Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me, in my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you."

Her funeral will be held at St. Patrick's church, on Tuesday, March 5, at 10 o'clock, and the remains will be interred in the cemetery at 11 o'clock.

DEATH OF MRS. E. A. BURNETT.

It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we record the death of Mrs. Annie M. Burnett. Although Mrs. Burnett had been an invalid for many months, and suffered much for several weeks before she died, her death was a shock to her family. She had been afflicted with disease of the heart for nearly two years, but the immediate cause of death was quick consumption. She was conscious until the last moment and willingly and peacefully met the conqueror before whom the great and the weak of the earth are alike powerless.

Mrs. Burnett leaves two children, both girls; one six years of age, the other an infant of eighteen months.

To the bereaved husband, who has lost a loving and beloved wife, to the little children, who are happily too young to appreciate the deprivation of a fond and faithful mother, to the sister, who mourns the death of an only sister, knit to her by ties of the strongest and tenderest affection, and to the sorrowing parents who lament the early removal of a dear daughter, we extend our deep and heartfelt sympathy, sympathy shared by a large circle of friends. It is powerless to heal the wound of so deep a grief, but it is all that poor humanity can offer.
